

STORM PUTS DAMPER
ON SOUTHAMPTON

Outdoor Pastimes Are Suddenly Brought to a Halt.

GOLF TO RULE NEXT WEEK

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., Aug. 3.—The period of hot weather and extreme humidity, which continued here for a week, was broken last night, and to-day the village is swept by a cold northeast storm which has put a damper on bathing, tennis and golf, the chief pastime of the younger members of the cottage colony during the past week.

Preparations are going on for the play which is to be given in the garden of the Art Museum by the Colours Players on Friday evening for the benefit of the Rogers Memorial Library.

The Shinnecock Hills Golf Club tournament will begin on Thursday, August 12, and will last three days. Play will be for eighteen holes, the first sixteen to qualify for the president's cup offered by George C. Clark and the second sixteen to qualify for the Shinnecock cup offered by E. W. Humphreys and Dr. George A. Dixon, Col. Robert M. Thompson, James C. Parrish, Goodhue Livingston, Morgan J. O'Brien, F. A. Snow and J. F. Harris, trustees of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Watson of Orange, N. J., arrived on Monday and are to be at the Meadow Club until August 9. Mrs. Watson entertained at the clubhouse to-day for forty guests at an opening tea and bridge party.

Mr. Alexander H. Fick, who is entertaining a house party for his daughter, Miss Esther Fick, gave a dinner for fifteen at the Meadow Club last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fick, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Fick, and their daughter are guests at the club for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Frank Kernochan left to-day for Bar Harbor, Me., after spending several weeks here.

Cardinal Gibbons was entertained to-day by William Walton at his cottage in Southampton. Mr. James S. Duffy and the Right Rev. Dennis O'Connell, of Brooklyn, were also guests for the day of Mr. Walton. Cardinal Gibbons is expected to preach at the Church of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary on Sunday next.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. De Nesa of Havana, Cuba, arrived to-day at the Irving for the remainder of the season. Other guests at the Irving are Mr. and Mrs. Landon Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Hare, George L. Farnum, Charles Reed, Nelson Doubleday, James C. Fargo and John Elliott.

N. Y. U. STUDENTS SEE 'MEDEA'

Helene Players Present Greek Work in Library Building.

Several hundred students of the New York University summer session and their friends witnessed a performance of the classical Greek play "Medea" yesterday afternoon in the library building. The play, written by Euripides, was given by J. Theodore Helene and Mme. Barsescu, in the Library Building on University Heights.

The Helene company, of which Mme. Barsescu, a noted Rumanian actress, is the principal, is called the Art Drama Players. The performance was under the auspices of the University, being a crowd of the regular curriculum of the summer course.

On Friday and Saturday matinee and evening the company will transfer its activities to the Peoples Theatre in the Bowery, where "Medea" will be repeated, with the addition of a new act called "The Peasant Revolt," a native play in the Rumanian. In this play Mme. Barsescu will again take the leading role.

SOUVENIR PLEASES WILSON.

President Gets Pamphlet of His With Names of 51 Readers.

YONKERS, Aug. 3.—Fifty-one members of the Y. M. C. A. read a little pamphlet written by Woodrow Wilson, entitled "When a Man Comes to Him," after which they presented him with a copy. The pamphlet, which was written by the President, dated Cornish, N. H., "My Dear Mr. HASKETT: Will you not say to the gentlemen whose names are on the list that they are very much interested in the doctrine preached in this little essay, and that they are very much interested in something more than a passing thought. Cordially and sincerely yours, 'Woodrow Wilson'."

YACHTSMEN NEWPORT GUESTS.

Mrs. Sands, Mrs. de Rham and Mrs. Roche Entertain.

NEWPORT, Aug. 3.—The arrival of the New York Yacht Club fleet here this afternoon from New London on the Boston cruise made it a busy night on Bellevue avenue. Many of the visiting yachtsmen were entertained informally and some dinner parties were given at Bellevue Lodge and Hill Top Inn.

Mrs. Frederick P. Sands, Mrs. H. C. de Rham and Mrs. Burke Roche were luncheon hostesses to-day.

WEDDINGS.

Seamer—Gaskell.

Miss Louise A. Gaskell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gaskell of Rock Hill Centre, N. Y., was married to Raymond B. Seamer of this city yesterday afternoon in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles I. Seamer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Maxwell and respectively as best man and bridesmaid. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and was followed at the St. Regis, after which Mr. and Mrs. Seamer left for the White Mountains.

AIKEN TIGERS SHOW
FONDNESS FOR MUD

Score Seventeen Goals While Point Judith Gets Ball Between Posts Twice.

ULSTERS AND FURS IN USE

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 3.—The postponed polo match between the Aiken Tigers and the Point Judith team was played to-day under unfavorable conditions. A soggy field and gusts of wind did not prevent excellent play, however, though the spectators, wrapped in heavy ulsters and furs, shivered throughout.

The Point Judith team began with a two goal handicap which was soon eradicated by goals by Burke and Hoping for the Aiken Tigers. At the end of the third chukker the Tigers had a lead of 7 points, but in the fourth period the Point Judith four scored twice. This performance was not repeated and at the end of the match the score was 16 to 34 in favor of the Aiken Tigers. The lineup:
